Chris Corrigan, VP of Business & Finance

- ASU has made $2.1 million in market adjustments, no other USG institution has made the same effort. There is a likelihood (not definite) possibility of a 2-3 percent pay increase from state legislature. This will be a merit based increase only not COLA. Fiscal 2017 request to Chancellor Huckaby for 3 staff positions, improve phone system, salary increases and renovation funding. Galley Days has been wildly successful and will be extended into next semester with an increase to twice monthly opportunity.

Old Business

Polo Update

- Shirts should arrive in bookstore in the next 7-10 days.

Random Acts of Kindness

- November receivers were Athletic and Recreation Center, everyone was happy.

Toys for Tots

- 2 bikes with helmets purchased (boy and girl). Facilities graciously agreed to assemble the girls bike. Please give donation dollars to Deidra Dennie.

New Business

- JLT update provided by Deidra Dennie.
- Next SAC meeting is January 13, 2016. The week after our regularly scheduled meeting.
- Talk about #Mizzou will be held at Noon today. Lunch is provided. Hoping to spark conversation with student body and all campus employees about how Armstrong can be more effective in ensuring students feel safe speaking up.
