Items 1-25 from the Department of Art, Music, and Theatre were discussed and approved by the committee. They are being submitted to the Faculty Senate for approval.

1. Delete the following course:
   ARTS 2012 PAINTING II

   Rationale: This course is no longer being required in our Major Field concentration for all B.F.A. in Visual Art, B.A. in Art, and B.S. in Art Education majors and is no longer needed. ARTS 2110 Introduction to Graphic Design is replacing it as a Major Field Course that all BFA students will be required to take. A new 3000 level painting course (ARTS 3020) is being created and will be placed in our new Drawing and Painting track for the BFA in Visual Art and will be placed in the Major Field concentration for the B.A. in Art and B.S. in Art Education degrees.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

2. Delete the following course:
   ARTS 3150 COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY

   Rationale: This course is no longer being taught in our curriculum. The chemicals and equipment have become scarce and issues about color are now being covered in the digital photography courses.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

3. Delete the following course:
   ARTS 3170 EXPERIMENTATION IN PHOTOGRAPHY

   Rationale: The content of this course is being rolled into ARTS 3160 in our curriculum.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

4. Delete the following course:
   ARTS 3350 GLAZE EXPERIMENTATION

   Rationale: This course is no longer being taught in our curriculum.

5. Modify the following course:
   ARTS 1100 ART APPRECIATION
   Artistic theories, styles, media, and techniques as they relate to the visual arts. Not recommended for art majors. Introduction to materials and techniques, art history, aesthetic and color theory, and methods of criticism related to the visual arts.

   Rationale: Description is more appropriate for the content of the course.
6. Modify the following course:
ARTS 2011 INTRODUCTION TO PAINTING 1-4-3
Rationale: Title is more appropriate for the level of content of the course.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

7. Modify the following course:
ARTS 2040 INTRODUCTION TO DARKROOM PHOTOGRAPHY 1-4-3
Rationale: The change in the title is to better differentiate it from digital photographic processes.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

8. Modify the following course:
ARTS 2150 THE COMPUTER IN ART INTRODUCTION TO NEW MEDIA 1-4-3
Prerequisite: ARTS 1020 or permission of instructor or department
Computer as a tool for making art using its unique output characteristics to produce hardcopy on various printers and for making art using the hardcopy combined with traditional media. Fundamentals of the computer as a tool for art-making utilizing its unique characteristics in various outputs utilizing 2D, 3D or 4D (time or audio-based) formats. Emphasis on image making and image manipulation using a variety of new media tools.

Rationale: The change in the title and description makes the course more appropriate to the changing digital world. The computer-based processes, tools and output have evolved since the course was created. This update will allow for the inclusion of output beyond the hardcopy (the printed version on paper of data held in a computer) to production of digital based artifacts that may include motion and audio. This is not intended to exclude computer-generated artifacts using hardcopy, but to allow for a broader, more relevant use of the computer as an art making tool.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

9. Modify the following course:
ARTS 2400 INTRODUCTION TO CRAFT FIBERS 1-4-3
Basic craft processes and techniques with emphasis on fibers and metalwork. An introduction to the medium of fibers, including fiber identification, dye application, construction methods, and resist techniques.

Rationale: Title and description is more appropriate for the content of the course.
10. Modify the following course:
   ARTS 3140 INTERMEDIATE DARKROOM PHOTOGRAPHY 1-4-3

   Rationale: Title is more appropriate for the content of the course.

   Effective Term:  Fall 2017

11. Modify the following course:
   ARTS 3160 HAND-COLORED AND MANIPULATED SILVER PRINT 1-4-3
   Prerequisite: ARTS 2040
   Exploration of media and experimental techniques to enhance and alter a silver print. Emphasis on hand applied color and toning. Processes include building and shooting with pinhole cameras, paper negatives, solarization, composite printing, chromoskedasic sabattier, chemigrams, toning, and hand-coloring techniques.

   Rationale: Title change and descriptions updates the course and aligns the content more closely with the intent of the course. This course moves beyond traditional straight printing techniques into experimental processes that can be achieved through ordinary darkroom chemistry.

   Effective Term:  Fall 2017

12. Modify the following course:
   ARTS 3220 CORPORATE LOGO AND IDENTITY DESIGN BRANDING 1-4-3

   Rationale: Title is more appropriate for course and is in keeping with similar courses in graphic design at other campuses.

   Effective Term:  Fall 2017

Rationale: The course description is updated to reflect the current content of the course.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

18. Create the following course:

ARTS 3020 INTERMEDIATE PAINTING 1-4-3

Prerequisite: ARTS 2011

Description: This course will build on painting techniques previously taught in ARTS 2011 with an emphasis on composition and content.

Rationale: The ARTS 2012 course has been eliminated. This course will provide additional preparation in painting the students who are focusing in drawing and painting.

ARTS 3610 SCREEN PRINTING  1-4-3
An introduction to screen printing methods including hand-cut stencils and photographic processes for printing on a variety of surfaces. Emphasis is placed on concept development, repeat pattern, and contemporary approaches to designing fabrics.

Rationale: This course replaces Arts 4890, Printmaking on Fabric, which has been taught for multiple years as a special topics course. Screen-printing is the most widely used method of applying pattern to fabric and is an essential skill for the Textile Designer.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

Prerequisites: ARTS 2040 and ARTS 3810
Description: Advanced techniques in the photographic medium, either in digital, darkroom, or a combination. Approaches include mixed media and installation, with an emphasis on developing a body of work.

Rationale: This course is a way to address the needs of students who are pursuing Digital Photography within the scope of art, for which we currently have no courses beyond the introduction level. Darkroom-focused students will be able to take this course as well. The first half of the course will cover techniques that can be approached in either an analog or digital method, or both within one project. Assignments include working with digital negatives to create analog prints, working with Lazertran to make mixed media photographic objects, and experimenting with photo-based installation. The first half of the course will experiment with these processes/media, while the second half will focus on creating a body of work in whatever medium(s) the student chooses to work with, with technical assistance as needed. Music

Items 1-15 from the Department of Art, Music, and Theatre were discussed and approved by the committee. They are being submitted to the Faculty Senate for approval.

1. Modify the following course:

MUSC 3510 SAVANNAH WINDS  0-2-1  0-2-(0-1)

Prerequisite: Audition and permission of instructor

Rehearsals and performances of standard literature for symphonic band. Concert band consisting of rehearsals and performances of a wide variety of repertoire. Open to all qualified students.
Rationale: Offering a zero credit option for music ensembles would encourage the participation of students outside the music program who may not need (or can spare) the credit. Students often participate in Armstrong music ensembles without registering for the class, and a zero credit option would provide a better means of measuring student participation. Music students who have met the ensemble degree requirements would also have an option for continued participation.

Course descriptions updated for consistency.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

2. Modify the following course
   MUSC 3520 JAZZ ENSEMBLE
   0-2-10-2-(0-1)
   Prerequisite: permission of instructor or department
   Repertoire selected from a variety of jazz periods and styles. Public performances required. Standard jazz ensemble consisting of rehearsals and performance of variety of jazz periods and styles. Open to all qualified students.

   Rationale: (See rationale from item 1)

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

3. Modify the following course:
   MUSC 3530 UNIVERSITY SINGERS VOCAL CHAMBER ENSEMBLE
   0-2-1-(0-1)
   Corequisite: MUSC 3540
   Repertoire selected from the Renaissance to contemporary vocal chamber literature, including classic literature and vocal jazz. Public performances each term. Membership open to all students by audition.

   Rationale: (See rationale from item 1)

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

4. Modify the following course:
   MUSC 3540 UNIVERSITY CHORALE
   0-3-10-3-(0-1)
   Repertoire selected from standard choral concert literature. Public performances each term.

   Rationale: (See rationale from item 1)

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

5. Modify the following course:
   MUSC 3550 CHAMBER ENSEMBLE
   0-2-10-2-(0-1)
   Prerequisite: Permission of instructor or department
Open to all qualified students in the performance media of brass, woodwind, strings, keyboard, and percussion. Various combinations of performance groups of varied instrumentation. May include public performances. Open to all qualified students.

Rationale: (See rationale from item 1)

Effective Term: Fall 2017

6. Modify the following course
MUSC 3560 WIND ENSEMBLE
Prerequisite: Audition and permission of instructor or department
Repertoire selection from the standard wind ensemble literature. Public performances required. Advanced concert band consisting of rehearsals and performances of a wide variety of repertoire. Open to all qualified students.

Rationale: (See rationale from item 1)

Effective Term: Fall 2017

9. Modify the following course
MUSC 4850 SENIOR PROJECT
Prerequisite: MUSC 2810, MUSC 4400, and either MUSC 3120 or MUSC 3610 and successful completion of piano proficiency exam
Corequisite: MUSC 4400
Rationale: The piano proficiency exam is being eliminated as a separate entity. It will now be a component of MUSC 2130 Keyboard Harmony III. Music Performance Majors take two semesters of MUSC 4400. They take MUSC 4450 Full Recital and MUSC 4850 Senior Project during the second semester of MUSC 4400. Students who fail to complete MUSC 4850 during that semester need to take the course again. It is not necessary to require MUSC 4400 a third time. Advising should prevent students from taking MUSC 4850 without being enrolled in a second semester of MUSC 4400.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

10. Modify the following course:

MUSC 1230 KEYBOARD HARMONY I 0-2-1
Prerequisite: Music major status or permission of instructor or department.
Co-requisites: MUSC 1200, MUSC 1210

Rationale: Deleting the “music major status” aligns this course with its co-requisites: MUSC 1200 and MUSC 1210. Since this course is also required for students pursuing a minor in music, the pre-requisite becomes a registration issue.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

11. Modify the following course:

MUSC 1000 RECITAL ATTENDANCE 0-1-00-2-0

Rationale: This course officially meets only once a week. The 2 hours of lab are a holdover from an earlier version of the course that met twice weekly.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

12. Modify the following course:

MUSC 2130 Keyboard Harmony III 0-2-1
Prerequisite: MUSC 1500, MUSC 1510, and MUSC 1530; or permission of instructor or department.
Keyboard techniques that reinforce theoretical concepts covered in MUSC 2100, Chromatic Music Theory, and MUSC 2110, Aural Skills III. including those skills needed to fulfill the piano proficiency exam. Passing with a grade of “C” or higher indicates piano proficiency for all music degrees.

Rationale: The piano proficiency exam no longer exists as a separate entity. Language in the course description helps to satisfy accreditation requirements.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

13. Modify the following course:

MUSC 3720 MUSIC HISTORY II 3-0-3
Prerequisite: MUSC 1100 and MUSC 1200 and MUSC 1210 and MUSC 1230
History of music in western civilization from classical era to present; influence of world music—examination of world music from selected cultures.

Rationale: Emphasis on the study of world music for accreditation purposes.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

14. Create the following course:
MUSC 3590 ORCHESTRA 0-2-(0-1)
Prerequisite: Permission of instructor or department
Rehearsals and performances of standard and contemporary orchestral literature.
Open to all qualified students.

Rationale: Orchestra has been offered as a “special topics” course every semester for over 10 years. It should be a designated ensemble. No new faculty or staff would need to be hired for this course.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

Item 1-7 from the Department of History was discussed and approved by the committee. It is being submitted to the Faculty Senate for approval.

1. Proposal for Physical Geography 1111 to be included in Area D.I.3 (see Attachment 1)
   (Note: Creation of this course was already approved by UCC 11/2/2016)

GEOG 1111 INTRODUCTION TO PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY 3-0-3
Description: A survey of physical geography. Topics include earth-sun relationships, weather, climate and climate classification, soils, bio-geography, vegetation, and landforms with emphasis on global patterns of distribution.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
Major Department: HIST
Can course be repeated for additional credit? No
Maximum number of credits: 3
Grading Mode: Normal
Instruction Type: Lecture

Rationale: Geography recently created a new lower-level Introduction to Physical Geography course (GEOG 1111) because we have expanded our Geography faculty to include a person who has the expertise to teach the subject matter. The course was previously a 3000-level course, which was not appropriate for the introductory-level material. Equivalent Introductory Physical Geography courses in other parts of the University System of Georgia count as part of the Area D Core (see for example the University of Georgia and University of West Georgia). We have modeled the numbering of our new course after the University of Georgia. Physical Geography is by nature a science course that will meet the SLO for Area D. There is also a precedent for a course that fulfills Area D to reside outside the College of Science and Technology. Currently, Geology 2010 falls under the discipline of Geography, which is housed in the College of Liberal Arts. Geology fulfills part of the Area D core requirement.

Area D SLO:
Students will demonstrate a collegiate-level understanding of the method by which scientific study is conducted and students will accurately evaluate data in scientific reasoning problems.
Physical Geography SLOs:

- Students will be able to define the basic terminology related to Earth’s physical features.
- Students will be able to describe the spatial patterns of Earth’s physical environment, including Earth’s atmosphere, water, land, and living systems.
- Students will be able to identify and analyze the physical processes that shape specific physical features on Earth’s surface.
- Students will be able to demonstrate the environmental processes through interactive classroom exercises.
- Students will be able to explain how human activities impact and interact with the natural systems.

IV. College of Science and Technology

1. For information only: GEOG 1111 and Area D proposal from COLA

The CCC discussed the proposal from COLA to teach GEOG 1111 in area D. The committee voted in favor of this proposal; however, there were some concerns and it was not a unanimous vote.

A. Biology

Items 1-3 from the Department of Biology were discussed and approved by the committee. They are being submitted to the Faculty Senate for approval.

1. Modify the following course:
   BIOL 3600 SALT MARSH BARRIER ISLAND ECOLOGY 3-3-43-0-3
   Prerequisite: BIOL 2020 BIOL 1108/BIOL 1108L or BIOL1108H (minimum grade of C)
   Covers the abiotic and biotic environment, flora, and fauna of coastal salt marshes-barrier island habitats with a focus on Georgia’s barrier islands. Topics may include geological history, coastal processes, and ecological communities of barrier island habitats. Current threats and current and future coastal management techniques will be discussed, marsh die-off, contaminant and pollution impacts, habitat loss, and marsh conservation.

Rationale: The change to the course title and course description will better reflect the background and expertise of current faculty. The modified course will expand the discussion of salt marshes to include additional habitats of Georgia’s barrier islands and coastal ecosystems. Barrier Island Ecology was taught as a BIOL 4970 Special Topics course in Spring 2015 and received positive feedback from students. The students enrolled in the course included a mixture of General Biology, Marine Biology, and Cell and Molecular Biology track majors, as well as several Middle Grades Education majors, suggesting that this course would appeal to a variety of students with an interest in coastal ecology. The removal of the laboratory associated with the course allows for a more extensive end of semester field trip to a barrier island that includes all habitats covered in class rather than multiple field site visits with restricted time allotment to individual habitats during weekly laboratory times. A round trip to uninhabited barrier islands with large, undisturbed habitats within the region require at least 2.5 to 3 hours travel time and would not be possible in a 3 hour timeframe. Finally, reducing the prerequisite from BIOL 2020 to BIOL 1108/Biol 1108L will better reflect the content of the course, which includes discussion of both the flora and fauna of barrier islands, while making the course available to a larger pool of students.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

Can course be repeated for additional credit? No

Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 43

Grading Mode: Normal

Instruction Type: Lecture and laboratory

Course Equivalent: None

2. Modify the following course:

BIOL 3470 MARINE POLLUTION ENVIRONMENTAL RESTORATION 3-0-3

Prerequisite: CHEM1212/1212L (minimum grade of C) and either BIOL 1108 (minimum grade of C) or BIOL 1108H (minimum grade of C)

Examines the identity, sources, and consequences of the major chemical, physical, and biological pollutants that impact marine environments. Also covers current federal and Georgia environmental laws and regulations, coastal ecological concepts, and as well as the techniques used for remediation of environmental degradation.

Rationale: Changes to the course title and description will better align the focus of the course with current faculty expertise. This will also increase the interdisciplinary nature of the course by retaining topics such as environmental policy, ecological principles, and restoration, while incorporating related topics in chemistry, organismal biology, and human health. Marine Pollution as described in the modification above was offered as a BIOL 4970 Special Topics course in summer 2016. It received strong positive feedback from the enrolled students, which consisted of a mix of marine biology and general track biology majors, plus one business economics major. The student makeup of the summer course indicates that the modified version of this course will appeal to the wide range of students that are interested in marine biology and/or general environmental issues. Finally, including the requirement that students enrolling in the course obtain a minimum grade of C in CHEM 1212/1212L will ensure that all students have the necessary foundation in chemistry to discuss the composition of chemical pollutants.

C. Computer Science and Information Technology

Items 1-6 from the Department of Computer Science and Information Technology were discussed and approved by the committee. They are being submitted to the Faculty Senate for approval.

1. Modify the following course:
   ITEC 2010 INTRODUCTION TO CYBER SECURITY
   3-0-3
   Prerequisite:   CSCI 1150 None
   Rationale: This course is intended as an introduction to Cyber Security for non-Cyber Security students. Students taking this course will not need a background in the material covered in CSCI 1150, and in order for this course to be placed in the core, it should not have a prerequisite.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

2. Modify the following course:
   CSCI 2070 INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER ETHICS AND CYBER SECURITY
   Prerequisite: ENGL 1102 and either CSCI 1302 CSCI 1301 or ITEC 1310
   Rationale: This course is the prerequisite to the courses that comprise the core of the Associate of Science, Cyber Security Track; the Undergraduate Certificate in Cyber Security; the Interdisciplinary Minor in Cyber Security; and the new Cyber Security Track in the Bachelor of Information Technology degree. ITEC 1310 is the direct prerequisite for CSCI 2070 in the BIT degree program. CSCI 1301 is the first programming course required in the Computer Science degree. Having CSCI 1302 as the prerequisite for CSCI 2070 places an extra course in the way of Computer Science majors taking CSCI 2070. It is also an extra barrier to students not majoring in IT or Computer Science that want to enroll in the program for the AS Cyber Security Track, the Undergraduate Certificate in Cyber Security, or the Interdisciplinary Minor... in Cyber Security. Consequently, CSCI 1301 should replace CSCI 1302 as one of the possible prerequisites for CSCI 2070.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

3. Modify the following program of study:

PROGRAM FOR THE DEGREE OF ASSOCIATE OF SCIENCE

Cyber Security Track

B. Additional Requirements ..................................................................................... 18 hours

MATH 1111 College Algebra (if not taken in Core Area A)

One class selected from:

- ITEC 1310 Programming for IT
- CSCI 1301 Introduction to Programming Principles

CSCI 2070 Introduction to Computer Ethics and Cyber Security

ITEC 3700 Cyber Security I

ITEC 4200 Cyber Security II, Network Security

ITEC 4300 Cyber Security III, Ethical Hacking

If MATH 1111 was taken in Core A, then select one of the following:

- MATH 1113 Pre-Calculus Mathematics
- CSCI 1150 Fundamentals of the Internet and the World Wide Web (if not taken in Area D)

ITEC 2010 Introduction to Cyber Security

Rationale: Students earning the AS Cyber Security Track would benefit from the option of taking ITEC 2010 instead of CSCI 1150, as ITEC 2010 will give them introductory material that will help prepare them for the more rigorous junior and senior level Cyber Security courses. ITEC 2010 is also in the program of study for both tracks in the BIT degree. This change will provide students with more flexibility regarding their initial programming course.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

4. Modify the following program of study:

Undergraduate Certificate in Cyber Security 18 hours

One course selected from:

- CSCI 1150 Fundamentals of the Internet and the World Wide Web
- ITEC 2010 Introduction to Cyber Security

One course selected from:

- CSCI 1301 Introduction to Programming Principles
- ITEC 1310 Programming for IT

CSCI 2070 Introduction to Computer Ethics and Cyber Security
ITEC 3700 Cyber Security I
ITEC 4200 Cyber Security II, Network Security
ITEC 4300 Cyber Security III, Ethical Hacking

Rationale: students earning the Undergraduate Certificate in Cyber Security would benefit from the option of taking ITEC 2010 instead of CSCI 1150, as ITEC 2010 will give them introductory material that will help prepare them for the more rigorous junior and senior level Cyber Security courses. In addition, as proposed in this set of changes, with ITEC 2010 not requiring a prerequisite, there will be one less barrier to completion for those students who are only earning the undergraduate certificate.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

5. Modify the following minor:

Cyber Security Minor
Cyber Security 18 hours
  CSCI 2070, ITEC 3700, ITEC 4200, ITEC 4300
  One course selected from: ITEC 1310, CSCI 1301
  One course selected from: CRJU 5003U, CRJU 5010U

Rationale: when proposing this change, we were working off of the 2015-16 Undergraduate Catalog, not changes made and now published into the online 2016-17 Undergraduate Catalog. Upon further review of the new online catalog, CRJU 5003U (Cyber Forensics) is listed as both a mandatory course and an optional course. The change listed above corrects this situation.

[Editor’s note: The minor had been transcribed to the online catalog incorrectly and has been corrected to match what was passed at the 12/2/2016 UCC meeting (and what was submitted to the catalog company).]

Effective Term: Fall 2017

6. Modify the following program of study:

PROGRAM FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Track 2: Cyber Security Track
Area F 18 hours
  CSCI 1150 Fundamentals of the Internet and World Wide Web
  CSCI 1301 Introduction to Programming Principles
  CSCI 1302 Advanced Programming Principles
  ITEC 1310 Programming for Information Technology
  One class selected from:
ITEC 2000 Introduction to App Development
ITEC 2010 Introduction to Cyber Security
And one of the following:
MATH 1161 Calculus I
MATH 1950 Applied Math for Non-Science Majors
MATH 2200 Elementary Statistics
CSCI 2625 Discrete Structures in Computer Science

Rationale: The change to the Cyber Security Track is to make the degree program more flexible so that students who start in the Information Technology Track and then switch to the Cyber Security Track will receive credit for ITEC 2010 if they took it in the Information Technology Track.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

7. Create the following course:
   CSCI 5710U/G Applied Cryptography  3-0-3
   Undergraduate Prerequisite: CSCI 2625

   Investigation of classical goals of cryptography such as data privacy, authenticity and integrity. Topics include pseudorandom functions and permutations, block ciphers, symmetric encryption schemes, security of symmetric encryption schemes, hash functions, message authentication codes (MACs), security of MACs, PKI, public-key (asymmetric) encryption, digital signatures, security of asymmetric encryption and digital signature schemes, secret sharing, and threshold cryptography.

   Rationale: The changes are required to fulfill our Cyber Security track in Master of Computer Science and Information Science program requirements. Graduate students will complete an extra project as part of this course.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT

Topics include concurrency and vulnerabilities that result from deadlock, race conditions, invalid memory access sequences, and vulnerabilities associated with file I/O and time of use (TOCTOU).

Rationale: This course is required to fulfill our Cyber Security of Master of Computer Science and Information Science program requirements. Graduate students will complete an extra project as part of this course.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

D. Engineering Studies (no items)
E. Mathematics (no items)

F. Psychology

Items 1-18 from the Department of Psychology were discussed and approved by the committee. They are being submitted to the Faculty Senate for approval.

1. Delete the following course:
PSYC 1200 DRUGS AND BEHAVIOR 3-0-3

Rationale: This course is deleted so that it can be recreated as an upper division undergraduate course (see PSYC 3095) and serve the role of a required course in the proposed neuroscience track.

Effective Term: Fall 2017
2. The department requests a blanket change removing all instances of PSYC 1200.

3. Create the following course:
   PSYC 3095 DRUGS AND BEHAVIOR. 3-0-3
   Prerequisite: PSYC 3090
   An advanced exploration of the various factors involved in drug effects and abuse. Focus on laboratory methodology (with humans and non-humans) to examine drugs of abuse and some pharmacological treatments for neurological and psychiatric disorders.

   Rationale: This course is being created as an upgraded version of PSYC 1200 Drugs and Behavior and serves the role of a required major course in the proposed neuroscience track in the PSYC BS degree.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

   CURCAT:
   - Major Department: Psychology
   - Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
   - Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
   - Grading Mode: Normal
   - Instruction Type: Lecture
   - Course Equivalent: None

4. Modify the following course:
   PSYC 2950 LIFESPAN DEVELOPMENTAL PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3
   Prerequisite: PSYC 1101
   Examination of basic principles of human psychological development from conception through old age as these relate to biological, cognitive, and social development. Not designed for psychology majors.

   Rationale: PSYC 2950 is included in the updated Area F of the BS and BA programs of study and serves as a prerequisite for PSYC 3050 Child Psychology.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

5. Delete the following course:
   PSYC 3020 PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING 3-0-3

   Rationale: This course is deleted so that it can be renumbered (See PSYC 3295) to a number larger than its prerequisite (PSYC 3280).

   Effective Term: Fall 2017
6. Create the following course:

PSYC 3295 PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 2200 and PSYC 3280

Individual and group tests in psychological, educational, and clinical settings. Focus on the theoretical and statistical principles that underlie psychological and educational measurement and standardized psychological instruments, and ethical issues in psychological testing.

Rationale: The course is renumbered from PSYC 3020 so that it is a larger number than its prerequisite (i.e., PSYC 3280). The new prerequisites ensure students are prepared for the content and critical thinking expectations.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
- Major Department: Psychology
- Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
- Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
- Grading Mode: Normal
- Instruction Type: Lecture
- Course Equivalent: PSYC 3020

7. The department requests a blanket change where all instances of PSYC 3020 are replaced with PSYC 3295.

8. Modify the following course:

PSYC 3030 EXPERIMENTAL SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3

Rationale: The qualifier ‘experimental’ is unneeded and may be problematic for students who transfer away from Armstrong.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

9. Modify the following course:

PSYC 3050 CHILD PSYCHOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENT 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 2200 and PSYC 44042950

Examination of psychological theories, research, and application of psychology of the child from conception through adolescence. Surveys recent literature within the areas of perceptual, biological, cognitive, and social/emotional development.

Rationale: PSYC 3050 will serve the role of an advanced course in our restructured programs of study and the added prerequisites will ensure students are prepared for the content and critical thinking expectations. Also, a typo is corrected.

Effective Term: Fall 2017
10. Modify the following course:

PSYC 3080 EVOLUTIONARY PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 and or PSYC 1101H or BIOL 1103 or BIOL 1107/1107L or BIOL 1107H/BIOL 1107A, and BIOL 1108 or BIOL 1108H

Rationale: The changes in prerequisites are intended to streamline course eligibility and update them to include BIOL 1103 which will enable more of our BA students to take PSYC 3080.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

11. Modify the following course:

PSYC 3090 PHYSIOLOGICAL PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101, and either BIOL 1103 or BIOL 1107/1107L and BIOL 1108 each with a grade of C or better

Rationale: Including BIOL 1103 will make PSYC 3090 more accessible to our BA students who are not required to take BIOL 1107. BIOL 1108 is not essential for success in PSYC 3090, and, therefore, deleted as a prerequisite.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
- Major Department: Psychology
- Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
- Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
- Grading Mode: Normal
- Instruction Type: Lecture
- Course Equivalent: None

12. Delete the following course:

PSYC 3160 CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3

Rationale: This course is deleted so that it can be renumbered (see PSYC 3290) to a number larger than its prerequisite (i.e., PSYC 3280).

Effective Term: Fall 2017

13. Create the following course:

PSYC 3290 CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 2200 and PSYC 3280
Application of psychological theories to the understanding and treatment of behavioral problems and disorders, including the history of clinical psychology, educational and training requirements, and specialized areas of practice.

Rationale: This course is renumbered from PSYC 3160 so that the course number is larger than its prerequisite course number (i.e., PSYC 3280). The new prerequisites ensure students are prepared for the content and critical thinking expectations.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
  Major Department: Psychology
  Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
  Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
  Grading Mode: Normal
  Instruction Type: Lecture
  Course Equivalent: PSYC 3160

14. The department requests a blanket change where all instances of PSYC 3160 are replaced with PSYC 3290.

15. Modify the following course:

   PSYC 3190 COMPARATIVE PSYCHOLOGY
   3-0-3
   Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 1101H
   Adaptations and behaviors with which living organisms cope with their environments viewed from mechanistic, cognitive, developmental, and evolutionary perspectives.

   Rationale: Typo corrected and superfluous prerequisite deleted.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017

16. Modify the following course:

   PSYC 3200 INDUSTRIAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY
   3-0-3
   Prerequisite: PSYC 2200 and PSYC 41013030

   Rationale: PSYC 3200 will serve the role of an advanced course in our restructured programs of study and the added prerequisites will ensure students are prepared for the content and critical thinking expectations.

   Effective Term: Fall 2017
17. Modify the following course:

PSYC 3280 ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101

Classification, etiology, prevention, and treatment of psychological disorders, along with theoretical perspectives and socio-cultural views of abnormal behavior.

Rationale: Prevention of psychological disorders is not addressed in PSYC 3280, and, therefore, it is removed from the course description.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

18. Modify the following course:

PSYC 5100U WOMEN AND MENTAL HEALTH 3-0-3

Undergraduate Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 or PSYC 1101H

Rationale: It is unnecessary to include PSYC 1101H as a prerequisite. PSYC 5100G is not being modified.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

Items 19-21 from the Department of Psychology were discussed and the undergraduate portions approved by the committee. They are being submitted to the Graduate Curriculum Committee and therefore are marked “For Information Only” for the report to the Senate.

19. Delete the following course:

PSYC 5150U/G CONFLICT RESOLUTION 3-0-3

Rationale: This course is deleted from the undergraduate curriculum as a part of program prioritization decisions. A graduate level version of the course (i.e., PSYC 6150) is being created to serve the MAPCL program.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

20. The department requests a blanket change removing all instances of PSYC 5150U.

21. Delete the following course:

PSYC 5300U/G LEADERSHIP AND GROUP DYNAMICS 3-0-3

Rationale: This course is being deleted to allow the psychology department to offer it as an undergraduate-level only course (i.e., PSYC 3300) and a graduate-level only course (i.e., PSYC 6300). A graduate level version of the course is being created to continue to serve the MAPCL program.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

Items 22-46 from the Department of Psychology were discussed and approved by the committee. They are being submitted to the Faculty Senate for approval.

22. Create the following course:

PSYC 3300 LEADERSHIP AND GROUP DYNAMICS 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101

Exploration of the social psychological approach to leadership development and the role of the leader in influencing group dynamics. Emphasis on the application of research findings in social psychology to the development of leadership skills.

Rationale: This course number is being created to allow psychology to teach it as an undergraduate student only course. It will also be taught to graduate students as a graduate only course (see PSYC 6300).

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
- Major Department: Psychology
- Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
- Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
- Grading Mode: Normal
- Instruction Type: Lecture
- Course Equivalent: PSYC 5300U

23. The department requests a blanket change removing all instances of PSYC 5300U and replacing it with PSYC 3300.

24. Create the following course:

PSYC 3410 LEARNING AND BEHAVIOR I 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101

Advanced examination of classical and operant conditioning, with an introduction of basic and applied research. Includes concepts and principles of behavior analysis, measurement, including data analysis, research design and fundamental elements of behavior change with ethical professional conduct.

Rationale: This course is being created as an equivalent course to PSYC 3400 that will eventually replace it. PSYC 3400, 5060, 5061, and 5062 constitute an approved course sequence by the Behavior Analysis Certification Board (BACB) that, when completed, enables students to take the Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst Exam. We must submit Armstrong approved courses for the board to review and accept. Once the BACB accepts PSYC 3410, PSYC 3420, PSYC 3430, and 3440 as replacements for PSYC 3400, PSYC 5060, PSYC 5061, and PSYC 5062, we will offer the former set of courses to students and cease offering the latter set - eventually deleting the latter set from the catalog.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
- Major Department: Psychology
- Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
- Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
- Grading Mode: Normal
- Instruction Type: Lecture
- Course Equivalent: PSYC 3400

25. Create the following course:

PSYC 3420 PRINCIPLES OF BEHAVIOR CHANGE 3-0-3

- Prerequisite: PSYC 3400
- Basic principles of behavior analysis, the definition and characteristics of applied behavior analysis, measurement, and behavior change procedures, including positive and negative reinforcement, schedules of reinforcement, punishment, imitation, shaping and chaining, extinction, differential reinforcement, and antecedent interventions.

Rationale: This course is being created as an equivalent course to PSYC 5060U that will eventually replace it. PSYC 3400, 5060, 5061, and 5062 constitute an approved course sequence by the Behavior Analysis Certification Board (BACB) that, when completed, enables students to take the Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst Exam. We must submit Armstrong approved courses for the board to review and accept. Once the BACB accepts PSYC 3410, PSYC 3420, PSYC 3430, and 3440 as replacements for PSYC 3400, PSYC 5060, PSYC 5061, and PSYC 5062, we will offer the former set of courses to students and cease offering the latter set - eventually deleting the latter set from the catalog.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
- Major Department: Psychology
- Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
- Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
- Grading Mode: Normal
- Instruction Type: Lecture
- Course Equivalent: PSYC 5060U
26. Create the following course:

PSYC 3430 BEHAVIOR ASSESSMENT 3-0-3

Prerequisite: PSYC 3420 or 5060U

Rationale: This course is being created as an equivalent course to PSYC 5061U that will eventually replace it. PSYC 3400, 5060, 5061, and 5062 constitute an approved course sequence by the Behavior Analysis Certification Board (BACB) that, when completed, enables students to take the Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst Exam. We must submit Armstrong approved courses for the board to review and accept. Once the BACB accepts PSYC 3410, PSYC 3420, and PSYC 3430 as replacements for PSYC 5060, PSYC 5061, and PSYC 5062, we will offer the former set of courses to students and cease offering the latter set - eventually deleting the latter set from the catalog.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:

- Major Department: Psychology
- Can Course be repeated for additional credit? No
- Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 3
- Grading Mode: Normal
- Instruction Type: Lecture
- Course Equivalent: PSYC 5061U

27. Create the following course:

PSYC 3440 BEHAVIOR CHANGE TECHNIQUES 3-0-3

Prerequisite or co-requisite: PSYC 3430 or 5061U

Seminar course in which students design, implement, and evaluate behavior change programs to practice selection of intervention outcomes and strategies, behavioral measurement and assessment, and use behavior change procedures and systems support consistent with professional ethical standards.

Rationale: This course is being created as an equivalent course to PSYC 5062U that will eventually replace it. PSYC 3400, 5060, 5061, and 5062 constitute an approved course sequence by the Behavior Analysis Certification Board (BACB) that, when completed, enables students to take the Board Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst Exam. We must submit Armstrong approved courses for the board to review and accept. Once the BACB accepts PSYC 3410, PSYC 3420, and PSYC 3430 as replacements for PSYC 5060, PSYC 5061, and PSYC 5062, we will offer the former set of courses to students and cease offering the latter set - eventually deleting the latter set from the catalog.
28. Modify the following course:

PSYC 3500 COGNITIVE NEUROSCIENCE I 3-0-3
Prerequisite: PSYC 1101
Examines the neural basis of cognition with an emphasis on the nervous system, attention, sensation and perception, and methodology, including principles and applications derived from basic research. Issues related to the various models of human information processing with an emphasis on perceptual and linguistic development, including principles and applications derived from basic research.

Rationale: This course name and description is modified to reflect the neurological basis of cognitive psychology. The topics are being split into two sections in order to adequately cover all topics. It will be a required course in the updated PSYC BS degree.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

29. The department requests a blanket change updating all instances of PSYC 3500.

30. Create the following course:

PSYC 3510 COGNITIVE NEUROSCIENCE II 3-0-3
Prerequisite: PSYC 3500
A continuation of Cognitive Neuroscience I. This course examines the neural basis of cognition with an emphasis on learning and memory, emotion, language, and control processes, including principles and applications derived from basic research.

Rationale: This course is being created to serve the role of continuing cognitive neuroscience topics. It will be a required course in the PSYC BS degree.

Effective Term: Fall 2017
Course Equivalent: None

31. Modify the following course:
   PSYC 3800 HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY 3-0-3
   Prerequisite: PSYC 1101
   Examination of biological, psychological, and social factors that interact with and affect health and illness. Topics discussed may include, but are not limited to, the psychophysiology of stress and pain and recovery, rehabilitation, and psychosocial adjustment of individuals with health problems.
   Rationale: The term recovery is redundant with rehabilitation, and, therefore, deleted. Commas included where needed.
   Effective Term: Fall 2017

32. Modify the following course:
   PSYC 3950 RESEARCH IN PSYCHOLOGY V-V-(1-6)V-V-(1-9)
   Prerequisite: junior standing, permission of department head, and agreement by a faculty member to supervise the research. By permission of supervising faculty member Uncompensated Research to be assigned and directed by a faculty member of the Department of Psychology. Students will conduct research which may include a literature search, field or laboratory observation and experimentation, data reduction and analysis, and written and/or oral presentation of results. The research experience will be evaluated by a rotating committee of the departmental faculty before the initiation of the project, and again upon completion of the work. Credit will vary depending on the work to be completed. Course may be repeated up to a total of six nine (69) credit hours.
   Rationale: Supervised research is occurring at earlier stages of students’ academic tenures and prerequisites beyond faculty permission are not needed. We prefer this course description be silent on the issue of compensation. We are no longer using a committee to evaluate proposed and concluded research projects. With the support of faculty, students are participating in more research projects and 6 hours is not sufficient in many cases.
   Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:
   Major Department: Psychology
   Can Course be repeated for additional credit? Yes
   Maximum Number of Credit Hours: 69
   Grading Mode: Normal
   Instruction Type: Directed Study
   Course Equivalent: None
33. Modify the following course:

PSYC 4090 LEARNING AND BEHAVIOR II

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 and PSYC 2200-3400
Corequisite: PSYC 4091

A continuation of Learning and Behavior I. A more in-depth exploration of classical and operant conditioning with the requirement of conducting experiments with non-human animals to illustrate concepts and principles surveyed in Learning and Behavior I. Students collect and analyze data to write research reports. Laboratory component with rotating emphasis (depending on instructor): cognitive, behavioral, biological. An examination of basic learning processes and theories. Emphasis on experimental procedures used in the laboratory to better understand human behavior.

Rationale: This course is modified to serve the role of an advanced Learning and Behavior course taken after its prerequisite (PSYC 3400) and continue to be paired with a laboratory section. It is a required course in the BS degree, but will no longer be a course in our applied behavior analysis course sequence that prepares students for the certification examination. PSYC 1101 is not necessary as a prerequisite.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

34. The department requests that all instances of PSYC 4090 be updated in the catalog

35. Modify the following course:

PSYC 4100 HISTORY AND SYSTEMS OF PSYCHOLOGY

Prerequisite: PSYC 1101 and junior standing
A minimum grade of C in 18 hours of PSYC courses and permission of the instructor.

A discussion of people, events, and theoretical and empirical contributions relevant to the development of psychology. Topics covered include early animism, Cartesian dualism, British associationism, Darwinian adaptation, consciousness, the unconscious, various behaviorisms, and cognitive science. Special attention is given to the influence of philosophy in the history of psychology.

Rationale: The teaching faculty of this course prefer the proposed course description. PSYC 4100 will no longer occupy the role of a capstone course in either program of study and completing the course in one’s junior or senior year is appropriate.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

CURCAT:

Prerequisite: PSYC 2200
Directed readings supervised by a faculty member in the field of neuroscience serve as a capstone course for the neuroscience track and minor. Course may be repeated up to a total of six (6) credit hours.

Rationale: This course is being created to allow faculty to work with individual or small groups of students on directed reading assignments on specialized topics.

Effective Term: Fall 2017

Examination and critique of research designs in the literature of scientific psychology. Topics include conceptual and mathematical foundations for common measurement and analytical procedures which may include parametric and nonparametric tests.

Rationale: PSYC 4000 Measurement was once the department’s upper division research course, but we replaced it with PSYC 4050. Both course serve the same general role in both degree programs. Updating CURCAT will link the two courses and aid in degree audits

PSYC 4051 ADVANCED RESEARCH DESIGN AND ANALYSIS LAB 0-1-1
Corequisite: PSYC 4050
Develop and conduct a required, original research project. Students apply statistical procedures to analyze data and compose an empirical article that conforms to APA standards.

Rationale: PSYC 4001 Measurement Laboratory was once the department’s upper division laboratory course linked to 4001, but we replaced it with PSYC 4051 when we created PSYC 4050. Both laboratories serve the same general role in both degree programs. Updating CURCAT will link the two laboratories and aid in degree audits

1. Create the following course:
   - EDUC 3050 Introduction to Child Life Theory and Practice 3-0-3
   - Prerequisites: ECUG 3040
   - Description: Course provides students with an understanding of the psychosocial needs of children and families in hospital or pediatric clinical settings. Students will learn assessments and techniques to promote adjustment and coping during stressful medical events. EDUC 3050 does not qualify students to take the Child Life Professional Certification Examination or complete the 480 hours of internship/fellowship to become a Certified Child Life Specialist.

Rationale: Child life specialists are experts in child development, who promote effective coping through play, preparation, education, and self-expression activities. They provide emotional support for families, and encourage optimum development of children facing a broad range of challenging experiences, particularly those related to healthcare and hospitalization. Understanding that a child’s wellbeing depends on the support of the family, child life specialists provide information, support and guidance to parents, siblings, and other family members. They also play a vital role in educating caregivers, administrators, and the general public about the needs of children under stress. This course introduces students to the profession of child life specialist.

Pete Hoffman shared that during the 2017 Georgia legislative session, it is anticipated that tuition caps and campus carry will be reintroduced. The College of Health Professions building was on the University System of Georgia (USG) capital project list. Efforts to promote inclusion of the building in the Governor Deal’s FY2018 budget continue. The governor’s budget will be released during the first week of the legislative session.

At the federal level, efforts continue to secure additional funding for cyber initiatives. Our Georgia senators have requested additional funding for Armstrong to support work with the National Guard in the area of cyber.

Pre-Tenure Review

A candidate will be evaluated in teaching, scholarship, service, and professional development. A candidate’s teaching is paramount in this evaluation. The candidate has the responsibility to demonstrate and document effectiveness in all areas.

Portfolio Recommendations, University Level

- 2 portfolios will be included, a Master Portfolio and a Supplemental Portfolio
  - No size limits specified for either portfolio

Master Portfolio:

- Letter requesting the review for either tenure or promotion
- Table of contents, for both portfolios
- An up-to-date curriculum vitae with complete sections on teaching, scholarship, service, and professional development
- Copies of all APARs and AFEs since hire
  - It is strongly recommended that a peer-review for evaluative purposes is included in the AFE
- Copies of student evaluations of teaching statistical summaries for each course taught since hiring
- Reflective self-evaluation/narrative for each section of the portfolio (teaching, scholarship, service, professional development) that responds to student input, past peer review and evaluation, and past department head evaluations
- For tenure, a copy of the pre-tenure review and candidate's response thereto
- For tenure, there shall be a summarization of departmental colleague balloting and a department head recommendation. Ballots shall be provided by tenured faculty only (in the case of an application for tenure), and by faculty at the rank or higher of that which is applied for by the candidate. The department head’s recommendation and balloting summary shall be added to the portfolio before forwarding to the College T&P Committee.

Supplemental Portfolio:

- Copies of all student evaluations of teaching since hiring
- Representative sample of teaching materials, including syllabi, course materials, tests and exams, and any other course handouts and materials. Candidates should not duplicate materials, and should include materials to show developments in teaching, if applicable.
- Copies of scholarship materials produced by the candidate
- Documentation of formal faculty developmental activities in which the candidate has participated
- Other materials as required by departmental guidelines
- Other materials the candidate wishes to include (such as peer-review for mentoring purposes or peer-review by faculty request)
Faculty Evaluation

The evaluation process serves multiple purposes. It assists the university in its review of faculty members for continued employment; it assists the university in recognizing the merit reflected by the awarding of tenure and promotions; it helps in the determination of salaries; and it both recognizes and encourages a faculty member's professional growth.

The system presently in use at the university involves three successive evaluation levels. On the first level, data are gathered from students, from peers, and from the individual faculty member. This information is then included in the second level by department heads in making the official, annual evaluation of each faculty member's performance for a given academic year. This official evaluation, including a plan for improvement developed by the department head, is recorded on the Annual Faculty Evaluation form that the department head completes for each department member. The department head signs the Annual Faculty Evaluation before presenting it to the faculty member and forwarding it to the dean for review. The faculty member will sign the Annual Faculty Evaluation indicating that he/she has been apprised of the content of the annual evaluation. The Annual Professional Activities Report and summaries of all data and other information collected at the primary level are attached to it. These annual evaluations are then used at a third level of evaluation (vice president of academic affairs and president) where decisions are made regarding continued employment, tenure, promotion, and salary recommendations.

Criteria for Faculty Evaluation

Faculty are evaluated in teaching, scholarship, service and professional development. Each area is deemed Noteworthy (exceeds expectations), Satisfactory (meets expectations), or Unsatisfactory (does not meet expectations).

Teaching excellence will be the most important factor in all evaluations. Teaching includes all work that involves the use of a faculty member's expertise to communicate subject matter to students. It may, therefore, include traditional lecturing in the classroom, supervision and training in a laboratory or clinical setting, nontraditional communication of a discipline, the collecting and developing of subject materials for communication to students, the guidance of students in independent study and research, online course development and instruction and academic advising. A faculty member's command of the subject matter, motivation of and relationship to students, testing and grading practices, and overall fulfillment of teaching responsibilities are primary characteristics to be considered in the evaluation of teaching.
Scholarship involves the use of a faculty member's expertise as a scholar or artist. It includes work that adds to the subject matter of a discipline and work that increases the expertise of a faculty member as a professional. Research and dissemination of research through disciplinary publication and presentation are encouraged by the university; the pursuit and support of scholarly activities, consistent with the role of the institution, are professional obligations of every faculty member. Scholarship includes the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning, the Scholarship of Engagement, and/or the Scholarship of Discovery as defined by USG (http://www.usg.edu/academic_affairs_handbook/section4/C691/ - p4.7.2_faculty_work_in_the_schools) and as appropriate to the faculty member’s discipline.

Service includes all work that involves the use of a faculty member's academic status or professional expertise to benefit the university, the community, or the profession. The essential element of service is that it involves contributions associated with a faculty member’s established status in a discipline and at the university. Unless otherwise stipulated in a faculty member's job description, service is considered a responsibility of employment and consequently subject to evaluation.

Although the evaluation criteria indicated above point to three separate areas of evaluation, it is natural that the boundaries dividing teaching, scholarship, service, and other significant areas of professional activity may blur and that integrated enterprises involving these activities may emerge.

In addition to teaching, scholarship and service, the Board of Regents lists professional development as an area of faculty evaluation. Professional development includes strategic learning and services that increase individual and institutional effectiveness in support of the university and the University System of Georgia. Professional development may supplement teaching, scholarly and service activities.

As an institution that prepares teachers, it is expected that some faculty will collaborate with the K-12 schools. Armstrong supports, recognizes, and rewards faculty who participate significantly in approved teacher preparation efforts and in school improvement. These efforts should be documented in a faculty member’s AFE where applicable (i.e., teaching, scholarship, and/or service). Participation in teacher preparation and in school improvement may include documented efforts of faculty in improving their own teaching so as to model effective teaching practices in courses taken by prospective teachers, contributing scholarship that promotes and improves student learning and achievement in the schools and in the university, and collaborating with public schools to strengthen teaching quality and to increase student learning.

The evaluation of the performance of a faculty member must, under any circumstances, be supported by appropriate corroborating evidence.

USG Policy Manual sections on Evaluation, Promotion, and Tenure of faculty (section 8.3.5-7)
Procedures for Faculty Evaluation

The Annual Professional Activities Report (APAR):

The APAR instrument is distributed during the fall semester to each faculty member. This report, covering the activities of an entire calendar year (January-December), is completed by the faculty member and submitted directly to the department head at the end of the reporting period. A copy of this report must be attached as an appendix to the Annual Faculty Evaluation of the faculty member.

Student Evaluations of Teaching (SmartEvals; eFACE; or FACE;):

Student evaluations of teaching are administered to students at the end of each semester or summer session. Data from these evaluations are reported to the department head and to the faculty member and must be included in the Annual Faculty Evaluation report. Student Comment Sheets including the students’ names will be given to the faculty member and to the department head. If the Student Comment Sheet does not include the student name, it will be given only to the faculty member. The faculty member may choose to include or omit these unsigned comments in their portfolio. Numbers and percentages of responses on all categories of the evaluations are aggregated annually on each faculty member according to lower-division, upper-division, and graduate courses. The data will be made available to the appropriate department head and dean and may be used for diagnostic and evaluative purposes.

Additional faculty and course evaluative instruments may be used to support faculty teaching effectiveness.

Faculty Peer Evaluation (FPE):

Each department (or at the college level where applicable) develops and maintains a peer evaluation system. A summary or portfolio of the record of performance of a faculty member in teaching, scholarship, service, and professional development must be available for review by peers prior to conducting a peer evaluation. The peer evaluations need not be conducted annually and no faculty member is required to evaluate any other faculty member. However, designated peer evaluations must be conducted as follows:

A peer evaluation involving all eligible faculty of a department must be conducted at least one month prior to any recommendation for pre-tenure review, tenure and/or promotion application, and post-tenure review.
Peer evaluations involving all faculty of a department must be conducted for all tenured faculty members at least once every five years after the award of tenure, in addition to any peer evaluation for promotion.

Designated peer evaluations must indicate the number of faculty colleagues in a department who support, do not support, or abstain from participating in the review of the record of the peer. Such results shall be reported in the pre-tenure, tenure, promotion, and post-tenure recommendation forms or in the Annual Faculty Evaluation form of the faculty member under review. All written comments solicited in a peer evaluation also shall be included in the official record. All peer evaluations conducted in addition to those designated above shall be reported in the Annual Faculty Evaluation form of the faculty member under review.

A peer evaluation involving appropriate faculty of a department must be conducted at least one month prior to any recommendation for pre-tenure review, tenure, promotion, or post-tenure review.

Should a department not have at least 3 eligible faculty members to vote on pre-tenure review, tenure, promotion, or post-tenure review, the dean of the college and department head shall supplement the department voting contingent with up to 1, 2, or 3 faculty members from outside the department, but within the university.

Department heads may seek the counsel of their nonvoting faculty regarding issues of retention, pre-tenure review, tenure, promotion, and post-tenure review through means other than official balloting.

Faculty voting on other retention reviews shall be determined by the dean of each college for their respective departments.

Annual Faculty Evaluation (AFE):

Each spring semester, department heads evaluate the previous calendar year's (January-December) professional performance of faculty members on an Annual Faculty Evaluation form. The AFE must address the foregoing criteria and standards for faculty evaluations. Judgments rendered on the AFE are reached after consulting the faculty member’s Annual Professional Activities Report (APAR), Student Evaluations of Teaching, Faculty Peer Evaluation report, and such other data collected during the preceding academic year as may be deemed appropriate. Copies of pertinent reports and appropriate corroborating evidence must be appended to the completed AFE instrument.

The contents of the AFE must be reviewed with the faculty member by the department head in a scheduled conference. The faculty member receives a copy of the AFE and signs a statement acknowledging awareness of its contents. The department head presents AFEs to the dean of the appropriate college for review.
The completed AFE instrument (with all appendices) becomes a part of the faculty member's official record at the university. Each faculty member has the right to insert into the official record a written response to the AFE. When this right is exercised, the faculty member's response becomes an appendix to the AFE to which it pertains, and this appendix remains a part of the AFE thereafter. The department head will acknowledge in writing receipt of any response, noting changes, if any, in the AFE made as a result of either the conference or the faculty member's written response. This acknowledgment will also become a part of the record.

At the beginning of the fall semester the Office for Academic Affairs shall distribute to deans and department heads a list of deadlines for when documents for evaluations, reviews, tenure, promotion, and non-retention decisions must be received by the provost and vice president for academic affairs. Deans in consultation with their department heads shall base department and college deadlines for submitting and processing these documents on the deadlines set by the Office for Academic Affairs.

Generally, the processing of AFEs is to be completed and submitted to the provost and vice president for academic affairs before the midterm of the spring semester.

Guidelines for Faculty Evaluation

The following guidelines indicate the types of specific information that are used to evaluate a faculty member's teaching, scholarship, service, and professional development.

Teaching

Each faculty member's Annual Professional Activities Report (APAR) contains a list of all courses taught during the year, as well as an appropriate description of all other teaching and teacher-related activities.

Data gathered from the Student Evaluations of Teaching must be included in the AFE report for each faculty member. Additional faculty and course evaluative instruments may be used to support faculty teaching effectiveness.

The supervision of independent study courses, laboratory or clinical learning experiences, and student research should be reported on a faculty member's APAR, and appraisals of these activities may be appended to the AFE.

The presentation of continuing education courses, seminars, or workshops should be reported on a faculty member's APAR, and appraisals of these activities may be appended to the AFE.

External review of teaching, where appropriate, may be appended to the AFE.
Participation in the development of experimental and innovative instructional methodologies should be reported on a faculty member's APAR, and appraisals of this activity may be appended to the AFE.

Activities involving the counseling and advising of students should be reported on the faculty member's APAR, and appraisals of such activities may be appended to the AFE. See department and college promotion and tenure guidelines to determine if advisement is considered a teaching or service activity.

Appraisals of a faculty member's performance made during classroom visits by the department head or professional colleague(s) may be appended to the AFE.

In rendering an evaluation of teaching, both the number and nature of new course preparations by the faculty member and the number of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior, graduate and remedial level courses ought to be considered in terms of department, college and university goals. This information should be reported on the APAR. These details should be expected and reported upon within each APAR.

Any other factors which are considered important and which can be documented should be reported on the APAR, and documentation may be appended to the AFE.

Scholarship

Each faculty member's Annual Professional Activities Report (APAR) includes an appropriate description of all scholarly activities and areas of professional growth within the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning, the Scholarship of Engagement, and/or the Scholarship of Discovery, defined by USG (http://www.usg.edu/academic_affairs_handbook/section4/C691/ - p4.7.2_faculty_work_in_the_schools) and listed below.

The applicant should provide evidence of peer review of scholarship, whenever possible, that may include quantitative impact values, appraisals or reviews, acceptance rates, letters from the editors of publishers, manuscript reviewer letters, or jury results.

Published scholarly papers and books, papers, and books in manuscript, and papers presented at meetings of learned societies or professional meetings should be reported on the APAR;

Activities such as chairing sessions, serving as a panelist, or offering critiques at meetings of learned societies and professional organizations should be reported on the faculty member's APAR.

Performances, exhibitions, or recitals should be reported on the faculty member's APAR.
Grant proposals and their status as to funding or non-funding should be reported on the APAR and may be submitted as evidence of scholarly activity and as appendices for the faculty member's AFE.

Other creative expression related to a faculty member's profession ought to be reported on the APAR; accounts or appraisals thereof may be submitted as evidence of its scholarly or artistic value and as appendices for the faculty member's AFE.

The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning

Definition: The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning is the “systematic examination of issues about student learning and instructional conditions which promote the learning (i.e., building on previous scholarship and shared concerns), which is subjected to blind review by peers who represent the judgment of the profession, and, after review, is disseminated to the professional community” (Research Universities Consortium for the Advancement of the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning).

Evidence of the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning:

- Evidence that the faculty member's scholarship in the schools or in the university classroom is public, peer reviewed, and critiqued
- Evidence that the faculty member’s scholarship is exchanged with other members of professional communities through postings on websites, presentations to h/her department or college, presentations at professional conferences, and/or written up and published
- Evidence that the scholarship builds upon previous scholarship and shared concerns
- Evidence that the scholarship contributes new questions and knowledge about teaching and learning

The Scholarship of Engagement

Definition: The Scholarship of Engagement in schools is characterized by the following: It is to be conducted as an academic engagement with the public schools. It is to involve the responsible application of knowledge, theory and/or conceptual framework to consequential problems. It should test a research question or hypothesis. One must be able to use the results to improve practice and inform further questions. Resulting work should be available for dissemination for peer review of results. (Glassick, Huber and Maeroff).

Evidence of the Scholarship of Engagement:

- Evidence that the faculty member designs and implements a research agenda in at least one area of need recognized by the public schools
- Evidence that the faculty member applies relevant knowledge toward resolution of the identified need
Evidence that the faculty member assesses the impact of the engagement
Evidence that the faculty member disseminates for peer review the results of the outreach

The Scholarship of Discovery

Definition: The Scholarship of Discovery is basic research in the disciplines including the creative work of faculty in the literary, visual, and performing arts. It is the “pursuit of knowledge for its own sake, a fierce determination to give free rein to fair and honest inquiry, wherever it may lead” (Glassick, Huber and Maeroff). It contributes to the stock of human knowledge in the academic disciplines.

Evidence of the Scholarship of Discovery:

- Evidence that the faculty member’s research is innovative (as opposed to routine) as judged by peers at the institution and elsewhere
- Evidence that the faculty member’s research represents quality, rather than mere quantity
- Evidence of the faculty member’s publications in high quality refereed journals and the quality and quantity of citations and reprints of h/her research publications
- If appropriate for the discipline, evidence of the ability to attract extramural funding
- Evidence of invited seminars and presentations (abstracts), if travel funds are provided, are also an indication of the Scholarship of Discovery

Service

Each faculty member’s Annual Professional Activities Report (APAR) will include an appropriate description of all service activities engaged in during the evaluation period in question.

Service to the profession can be demonstrated in a variety of ways. Such service often arises through active participation in local, regional, national, or international professional organizations. Consequently, faculty members will report annually on the APAR their active participation in appropriate professional organizations. Activities with professional organizations are to be reported on the APAR. Memberships in professional organizations are to be listed in the APAR.

Service to the community may vary in importance from college to college and from department to department. Each administrative head should communicate clearly to each faculty member of the unit the importance of community service in the evaluation process. Evidence of service should be documented as follows: 1) Evidence that the faculty member links his/her work in some way to public contemporary issues and/or to improving the quality of life. 2) Evidence that the faculty member, either through scholarly work and/or service, applies knowledge toward solutions to complex societal problems and human needs. 3) Evidence that the faculty member contributes to the continuous improvement of public higher education. 4) Evidence that the faculty member contributes in some way to the public good. Contributions to the public good may include faculty work that contributes to solutions to complex societal problems, to the quality of life of Georgia’s citizens, and to the advancement of public higher education.

Service to the community may include, but need not be limited to, service to public agencies or learned societies, professional consultation, public speeches reflecting the discipline and profession of a faculty member or reflecting the results of scholarship, cultural or artistic contributions and involvement and participation in civic organizations, charitable projects, and community service. In the case of service to the public schools, the intent should be for the improvement of teaching quality and student learning. The following activities might be included in work with the schools: involvement in Learning Communities, workshops given based on need, collaborative development of courses, unit writing for the new Georgia Performance Standards, design of field experiences to support existing courses, engagement in co-observation/vertical alignment, etc. Faculty should refer to department and college tenure and promotion guidelines for specific examples of service relevant to their discipline.

Service to the university may include, but is not limited to, contributions to special departmental/program, college, or university projects; working with students or faculty on extracurricular activities; active membership on department, college, or university committees; participation in the public service, continuing education, or recruitment programs of the university, and possibly advisement depending on one’s department and college promotion and tenure documents. Such activities are to be reported on the APAR. It is expected that candidates show a progression of service responsibilities that indicates professional development and growth in service activity, duties and leadership.

If a service activity is accompanied by remuneration (e.g., pay for service, course release, extra travel money, etc.), the faculty member shall note the remuneration on the APAR where he or she describes the service activities. Colleges or departments may wish to distinguish between unremunerated and remunerated service.

Participation in, or support of, departmental seminars, colloquia, and lectures should be reported on the APAR.

Professional Development

Professional development is a broad term that describes the process of growth that occurs over the academic lifetime of a faculty member. Faculty are expected to be life-long learners who strive to better their performance at increasingly higher levels in teaching, service, and scholarship. Each faculty member's Annual Professional Activities Report (APAR) will include an appropriate description of all professional development activities engaged in during the evaluation period in question. Professional development may be defined as activities that impact a faculty member’s knowledge or skills, leading to improved teaching, enhanced scholarly work or improving the effectiveness of their service contributions. Professional development includes strategic learning and services. These will increase individual and institutional effectiveness in support of the department, the college, the university, the University System of Georgia, and/or the faculty member’s discipline.

Professional development in the areas of teaching, scholarship and service may include, but not be limited to, attending presentations, workshops, post-doctoral training, attaining additional degrees, continuing education, training sessions, and seminars on matters pertaining to the application of disciplinary knowledge and institutional effectiveness. Faculty should refer to department and college tenure and promotion guidelines for specific examples of professional development relevant to their discipline. It is understood that professional development may overlap with research and service activities.

Retention of Non-Tenured Faculty

All non-tenured faculty who serve on the basis of yearly contracts must be reviewed annually by departmental retention procedures that include both faculty committees and Department Heads until such time as they are promoted to Senior Lecturer at or after the sixth year of service. Once a faculty member is promoted, yearly retentions may be performed only by Department Heads. Full review (faculty committee, Department Head and Tenure and Promotion Committee) will occur during the fifth year after the year in which promotion to Senior Lecturer is awarded and every five years thereafter. The candidate must provide student evaluation summary forms and the annual APAR that documents accomplishments in teaching plus any accomplishments in scholarship, service, and professional growth and development for review by the departmental faculty prior to their notifying the department head of their reactions to the candidate’s retention (see Regulations, Article II, Section C. 2. a and C.2.b in the ASU Faculty Handbook). Reappointment of a lecturer who has completed six consecutive years of service to an institution will be permitted only if the reviews of the lecturer demonstrate exceptional teaching ability and value to the institution as defined by college and department promotion guidelines.

The department head will make the recommendation on retention which will then be sent to the Dean of the College for approval. The recommendation will be forwarded to the Vice President of Academic Affairs.
Tenure

Tenure embraces both rights and duties. It is a pledge of professional academic performance by the professor who holds it to the institution that grants it. It protects a professor from arbitrary dismissal.

Criteria Relating to Tenure

In order to be considered for tenure, a faculty member must have completed a satisfactory probationary period of at least five years of full-time service at the rank of assistant professor or higher. The five-year period must be continuous except that a maximum of two years' interruption because of leave of absence or of part-time service may be permitted, provided, however, that no probationary credit for the period of an interruption shall be allowed. A maximum of three years' credit toward the minimum probationary period may be allowed for service at other institutions in tenure-track positions or for full-time service at the rank of instructor at Armstrong State University. Such credit for prior service shall be requested by the individual and shall be defined in writing by the president at the time of the initial appointment at the rank of assistant professor or higher or at the time of promotion from instructor to assistant professor.

A candidate for tenure must not only meet the designated minimum period of service, but also must meet what are, at that time, seen as the long range needs of the university and must show a history of evaluations that merits the award of tenure. A history of weak evaluations may lead to the denial of tenure. Retention throughout a probationary period of service is by itself insufficient to guarantee the success of a candidacy for tenure.

A candidate will be evaluated in teaching, scholarship, service, and professional development. The candidate has the responsibility to demonstrate and document effectiveness in all areas. Consistent with BOR Policy, faculty members must be evaluated as Noteworthy in two of the four areas when applying for tenure. However, consistent with Armstrong’s mission, a faculty member’s teaching must be deemed at minimum Satisfactory. The most substantive evaluation for tenure should be at the departmental level. Tenure applications should be evaluated with decreasing emphasis on substance and increasing emphasis on process as the portfolio moves from the department to the dean to the provost and to the president.

Procedures Relating to Tenure

Candidacies for tenure should be initiated by the written request of the candidate to the department head or, in the case of a department head, to the appropriate dean. In the absence of an application by the candidate, such application may be initiated by the department head for a faculty member or by the college dean for a department head. The department head must solicit an assessment of the candidate's application for tenure through ballots and commentary from departmental colleagues. Only tenured faculty shall vote on tenure applications (and tenure reviews; pre- and post-tenure). Each department (or college if that is lowest level of review) must have on file with the dean of the college and with the provost and vice president for academic affairs a plan for ascertaining departmental peer review of tenure or promotion applications, pre-tenure reviews, or post-tenure reviews. The department head makes the initial recommendation to the dean.

The application is then sent to the dean of the college who forwards it to the college’s promotion and tenure committee. Each promotion and tenure committee serves in an advisory capacity and makes recommendations to the respective dean based on the college’s promotion and tenure documents. Criteria used by the committee must be in writing and must be consistent with the criteria and procedures contained in these regulations. The dean of each college, after receiving recommendations from the respective promotion and tenure committee, forwards them with his or her own recommendations to the provost and vice president for academic affairs. The provost and vice president for academic affairs may call a consultative meeting with the deans before forwarding his or her recommendations to the president. Individuals who are awarded tenure by the president shall be notified in writing of that award.

At the beginning of the fall semester the Office for Academic Affairs shall distribute to deans and department heads a list of deadlines for when documents for evaluations, reviews, tenure, promotion, and non-retention decisions must be received by the provost and vice president for academic affairs. Deans, in consultation with their department heads, shall base department and college deadlines for submitting and processing these documents on the deadlines set by the Office for Academic Affairs.

Generally, tenure applications are submitted and processed at the department and college levels in the fall semester and submitted to the provost and vice president for academic affairs early in the spring semester.

Candidates whose applications for tenure are rejected may pursue a formal administrative appeal. Full-time faculty hired on a tenure-track may not serve more than seven years without the granting of tenure.

Board of Regents’ Policy Manual, Personnel, 8.3.7 Tenure and Criteria for Tenure http://www.usg.edu/policymanual/section8/policy/8.3_additional_policies_for_faculty/#p8.3.7_tenure_and_criteria_for_tenure

Promotion

The institutional timeline for the review of faculty for promotion must be completed by early February of a given academic year in order to meet the data entry deadline of the end of February for the annual report to the Board of Regents.

Faculty are eligible for and may be reviewed for promotion in rank during their fifth year of service in their current rank. If recommended for promotion, the new rank will go into effect at the beginning of their next contract period. Recommendations for promotion are not normally considered for individuals who are currently on leaves of absence.

Under special circumstances, faculty who are performing significantly above the expectations for their current rank may be considered for “early” promotion. At state universities and state colleges, “early” promotion may only be considered according to the following time table:

- For early promotion from Lecturer to Senior Lecturer, faculty must have served a minimum of three years as a Lecturer
- For early promotion from Instructor to Assistant Professor, faculty must have served a minimum of three years as an Instructor
- For early promotion from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor, faculty must have served a minimum of four years as an Assistant Professor
- For early promotion from Associate Professor to Full Professor, faculty must have served a minimum of four years as an Associate Professor

At the time of an individual’s initial appointment, a maximum of three years of probationary credit towards promotion may be awarded for service at other institutions or service in a faculty rank within the institution. Individuals serving in part-time, temporary, or limited term positions are not eligible for probationary credit towards promotion. Without the approval of the President, faculty given probationary credit towards promotion may not use their years of credit towards consideration for early promotion.

Promotion is based upon length of service with the institution as well as consideration of quality of teaching, service, scholarship and professional development.

Noteworthy achievement is expected in at least two areas of evaluation. A written recommendation should be submitted by the head of the department concerned setting forth the reasons for promotion. The faculty member’s length of service with an institution shall be taken into consideration in determining whether or not the faculty member should be promoted.
Promotion from Lecturer to Senior Lecturer

Lecturers who are reappointed to their six year of service can be considered for promotion to senior lecturer, to begin in their seventh year of service. To be promoted to senior lecturer, annual performance reviews and other credible evidence as defined by college and department promotion guidelines are required to show noteworthy achievement in teaching and in at least one of the following areas: service, professional growth and development. Promotion to senior lecturer requires a minimum of: a. Six consecutive years of service at the rank of lecturer at Armstrong State University. b. Master’s degree in the academic area of specialization or a related field. There is no promotion for the lecturer beyond senior lecturer in this non-tenure track. Prepare a portfolio consistent with that described in the Portfolio section of the Tenure and Promotion Guidelines.

In keeping with BOR policy, promotion to senior lecturer requires approval by the president.

The following criteria will be used to assess all candidates for promotion from lecturer to senior lecturer and for instructor to assistant professor:

1. There must be a reasonable level of support among the faculty as evidenced by promotion balloting. Only Senior Lecturers and tenured faculty in the candidate’s department may be balloted.

2. Candidates must meet the requirements as outlined in Armstrong Faculty Handbook Sections 107.4.4 and 107.4.5.

Promotion in professorial ranks

The following criteria will be used to assess all candidates for promotion.

1. There must be a reasonable level of support among the faculty as evidenced by promotion balloting.

2. All of the following must meet at least satisfactory levels of performance, however, two must show evidence of noteworthy achievement:

   a. Teaching;

   b. Service to the Department, College, University, and/or community appropriate to the faculty rank

   c. Scholarship appropriate to the faculty rank;
d. Professional growth and development.

Only faculty at the rank of professor shall vote on applications for the rank of professor. Only faculty at the rank of associate professor or higher shall vote on applications for the rank of associate professor. Only faculty at the rank of assistant professors or higher shall vote on applications for the rank of assistant professor.

Instructor to Assistant Professor

Promotion to assistant professor requires a minimum of: (a) four years total teaching and/or related experience, (b) three years at the rank of instructor at Armstrong State University, and (c) a terminal degree in the academic area of specialization or related field, with rare exceptions made for clearly demonstrable special distinctions in training and expertise. There is no promotion for instructor beyond assistant professor in this non-tenure track.

Assistant Professor to Associate Professor

The candidate will hold a doctorate (terminal degree) in an academic area of specialization or closely related field and a minimum of six years of college level teaching or eight years total teaching and/or related experience. Additionally, the candidate will document five years of service at the rank of assistant professor with four years at the rank of assistant professor at Armstrong State University. The candidate must be in a tenure-track position.

Associate Professor to Professor

Minimum requirements:

1. Twelve years of university-level teaching, or fourteen years total teaching and/or related experience.

2. Five years at the rank of associate professor at Armstrong State University.

3. Terminal degree in academic area of specialization with rare exceptions made for clearly demonstrable special distinctions in training and expertise.

4. Must be tenured.
The candidate will demonstrate scholarly achievement beyond that required for both tenure and service at the level of associate professor. A lack of scholarship will not be offset by Noteworthy teaching and/or service in an application for promotion to the level of professor.
Post-Tenure Review

In order to provide tenured faculty with feedback on performance effectiveness and to identify opportunities for professional development consistent with the changing needs of the university, post-tenure evaluations will be conducted. Beginning five years after the initial year in which tenure was awarded or in the fifth year following the most recent promotion action and continuing at five year intervals, all tenured faculty members will participate in post-tenure evaluations.

It will be the responsibility of the department head to maintain a schedule of eligibility and to notify the eligible faculty in writing that a post-tenure review will be conducted and that documentation must be submitted by a specified date. This date will allow ample time for the faculty member to prepare the packet of information required for the review. The faculty member should meet with the Department Head to review the process, identify the kinds and quantities of documentation required, establish time frames, review deadlines, and secure any other information pertinent to the review process.

Prepare a portfolio consistent with that used for Tenure. The relative importance of teaching, scholarship, service and professional development does not differ from pre-tenure to post-tenure evaluations.

The post-tenure review process will involve the following: preparation of a portfolio by the faculty member who is to be reviewed; completion of a peer review procedure for the portfolio; and the completion of a report by the department head who details the results of the review. Full time, tenured faculty at the rank of associate professor and above will be eligible to review and evaluate the portfolio. All faculty who participate in the post tenure review process must be willing to certify that they have reviewed the application for post-tenure review portfolio carefully before completing and/or signing any official evaluation forms.

NOTE: Post-tenure review will substitute for a faculty member’s annual evaluation in the year in which it is conducted.

The College will adhere to the following deadlines which fall within the time frame for post-tenure review as published in the Faculty Handbook of Armstrong State University:
