

College of Science and Technology Summary of Internal Grants and Fellowships for Faculty

Below is a list of Internal Grants that are available to CST faculty at Armstrong State University. Please talk to the Office of Sponsored Programs and the Dean's Office for more information regarding private and publicly funded external grant opportunities. Please note: Deadlines are subject to change. If you are interested in any of these programs please check for an updated deadline.

College of Science and Technology's Summer Research Session (SRS) – These grants are funded out of the College of Science and Technology's Dean's Office. This program supports summer research stipends for faculty and students. It provides opportunities for students to engage in meaningful undergraduate research experiences. It also is used to support faculty to develop as teacher-scholars as well as facilitate external grant writing. This grant typically funds up to two or three part time research students per faculty member as well as a stipend for the faculty member. Deadline: Typically March

Teaching and Learning Grants – These grants are funded out of the Faculty Development Office. Projects submitted to this competition aim to strengthen the faculty member's pedagogical skills, or to extend the range of his or her teaching capabilities. Projects should explicitly address issues related to teaching and learning and do so in a systematic, scholarly way with clearly defined outcomes, methods of assessment, and strategies for communicating results to other interested faculty. This grant can fund a course release or up to $2000 for travel, supplies, or equipment. Deadline: Typically April

Research and Scholarship Grants – These grants are funded out of the Faculty Development Office. Projects submitted to this competition involve an investigation or study that aims to produce new facts or theories or apply such knowledge to problem-solving within the discipline or across disciplines. Results of research should be of a kind that may be submitted for publication in refereed journals. This grant can fund a course release or up to $2000 for travel, supplies, or equipment. Deadline: Typically April

Arthur M. Gignilliat, Jr. Summer Research Fellowship – This fellowship is funded out of the Faculty Development Office. The Arthur M. Gignilliat, Jr. Summer Faculty Research Fellowship is endowed by the Savannah Electric & Power Company to “support Armstrong State University's goal of maintaining a ‘tradition of excellence’ by providing the best educational experience for its students.” It awards the faculty member $5000 in summer salary to conduct their research project. Deadline: Typically April

Advanced Academic Leave - Leaves with pay are granted for the purposes of promoting scholarly work and encouraging professional development. The amount and duration of the stipend will depend upon funds available. The request for leave with pay is a professional responsibility and shall be used only for activities that will improve the faculty member's contribution to the university's teaching, research, or public service missions. Deadline: Typically October

Governor's Teaching Fellow - Governor's Teaching Fellows may participate in academic year symposia; an intensive summer symposium; or an academic-year residency at the University of Georgia. Past symposia have addressed numerous topics in using technology in the classroom and other pedagogical innovations. <http://ihe.uga.edu/outreach/governors-teaching-fellows> The Faculty Scholarship, Grants, and Awards Committee will review internal applications before making recommendations to the Provost. Internal Deadline: Typically early January.

SPARC (Strategic Planning and Resource Council) Grants - These grants fund projects that are designed to build and enhance campus relationships as well as proposals that are tailored towards our Strategic Plan and Core Values. This grant will fund up to $5,000 and is reviewed by the University SPARC committee. Deadline: Typically September
