Summer in Siena

June 2017
$4500 plus tuition

Summer in Siena is a 4 week Study Abroad Program in which students take Armstrong courses in Siena, studying the rich culture of Italy firsthand. The program includes airfare to Italy and transportation to Siena, 4 weeks of apartment living, cooking & culture classes offered at the Dante Alighieri school in Siena, excursions to Sienese landmarks, tours of Tuscany (including Florence, Pienza and La Foce in Val d’Orcia), the chance to attend the Palio, and pre-program meetings at Armstrong.

Courses Offered
- HIST 3485 Italian History
- HIST 3670 Women & Gender in Italy
- PHIL 2251 Ethics
- PHIL 3120 Medieval Philosophy
- SABR 2960 Study Abroad

Contact: Dr. Allison Belzer or Dr. Jack Simmons
Allison.Belzer@armstrong.edu
Jack.Simmons@armstrong.edu
Program Includes

- Roundtrip flight and transportation to Siena
- 4 weeks of accommodations in double rooms in shared apartments
- Cooking & culture classes
- Welcome & farewell group dinners
- Travel around Tuscany
  - Florence
  - Pienza
  - Villa La Focce
- Entrance fees & Tours of Siena’s culture sites
- Health insurance

Not Included

- Passport
- Tuition
- Daily Meals except those provided in culinary demonstrations
- Optional excursions to Rome and/or Cinque Terre