PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN-SERVICE OFFERINGS

- In-services consist of half-day (3 hours) or whole-day (6 hours), interactive workshops.
- All in-service is tailored for individual schools and teachers.
- All professional development is delivered on behalf of CSWP at Armstrong State University by Lesley Roessing, CSWP Director and Armstrong COE Lecturer.
- Coastal Savannah Writing Project also offers full-day teacher and classroom coaching, demonstrations, or assistance with unit planning.

SAMPLE IN-SERVICE WORKSHOPS

- Writing to Learn: Reader Response to Increase Comprehension of Complex Text & Meet CCSS in Reading and Writing — offered as 2 half-day or 1 whole-day session(s)
- Steps and Strategies for Teaching, not Assigning, Writing
- Strategies to Meet Common Core State Standards in Narrative Writing
- Teaching Memoir Reading & Writing to Bridge the Gap between Fiction & Nonfiction Reading and Narrative & Informative Writing
- Strategies to Meet Common Core State Standards in Informative/Expository Writing
- Strategies to Meet Common Core State Standards in Opinion/Argument Writing
- Teaching 6-Trait Writing (multiple-day workshop)
- Teaching through Writing Workshop
- Research-based Strategies to Teach Vocabulary and Word Study
- Teaching Reading Comprehension Strategies Across the Curriculum, Grades 5-12
- Implementing and Managing Reader Workshop
- Collaborative Reading & Writing to Engage Reluctant Readers & Writers and Build Classroom Community

FEE SCHEDULE

Half Day In-Service (3 hours) - $550
Full Day In-Service (6 hours) - $1000