Subject: Opening of Mail

Dr. Baird,
I wanted to contact you regarding the mail forwarding/opening process on campus. The controls over cash have been evaluated. It has been determined that the practice of the business office opening mail that appears to be checks will cease. Departments will continue to be directed to have funds for the University delivered directly to the Bursar’s Office. When a department does receive University funds, receipts over $200 should be deposited at the Bursar’s Office within one business day of receipt or weekly regardless of the amount. The department must deposit the funds along with the supporting general receipt documents. Funds not deposited must be kept in a secure locked device until deposited. Please contact me if you have questions.

Best regards,
David
