Learning Outcomes 2012-13:

- As a result of the renewal process, 80% of returning residents who sign up for fall 2013 housing will be able to state their room/apartment assignment, anticipate their cost of room (and board), and been given opportunity to choose their roommate(s) by the end of the Spring 2012 semester.
- 75% of residents who live in the Health Professions Living Learning Community will be able to demonstrate academic success by obtaining an overall G.P.A. of 3.0 or higher for the 2012-13 academic year.
- As a result of attending any educational program/event in the residence halls, 80% of residents will indicate that they learned something based on the program topic.
- Based on follow-up inspections, 80% of residents who are found in violation during Health and Safety inspections will demonstrate personal responsibility by adjusting their living environment in compliance with the policy.