Medically Necessary or Medical Necessity means services and supplies received while insured that are determined by the Company to be: 1) appropriate and necessary for the symptoms, diagnosis, or direct care and treatment of the Insured Person’s condition; 2) not primarily for the convenience of the Insured Person, the Insured Person’s Physician or another Service Provider or person. 4) not Experimental/Investigational or unproven, as recognized by the organized medical community, or which are used for any type of research program or protocol; and 5) not excessive in scope, duration, or intensity to provide safe and adequate, and appropriate treatment.

Permanent Residence means the country where an Insured Person has his or her true, fixed and permanent home and principal establishment, and to which he or she has the intention of returning.

Physician means a doctor of medicine or a doctor of osteopathy licensed to render medical services or perform Surgery in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction where such professional services are performed, however, such definition will exclude chiropractors and physiotherapists.

Pre-existing Condition means 1) a condition that would have caused person to seek medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment during the 12 months prior to the Effective Date of coverage under this Policy; 2) a condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received during the 12 months prior to the Effective Date of coverage under this Policy; 3) expenses for a Pregnancy existing on the Effective Date of coverage under this Policy. Note: Pre-existing Conditions will be covered to a maximum of $500.

Reasonable and Customary means the maximum amount that the Company determines is Reasonable and Customary for Covered Expenses the Insured Person receives, up to but not to exceed charges actually billed. The Company’s determination considers: 1) amounts charged by other Service Providers for the same or similar service in the locality were received, considering the nature and severity of the bodily Injury or Illness in connection with which such services and supplies are received; 2) any usual medical circumstances requiring additional time, skill or experience; and 3) other factors the Company determines are relevant, including but not limited to, a resource based relative value scale.

Policy terms and conditions are briefly outlined in this Description of Coverage. Complete provisions pertaining to this insurance are contained in the Master Policy on file with the trustee, Sun Trust Bank, Washington, District of Columbia, and the Participating Organization. In the event of any conflict between this Description of Coverage and the Master Policy, the Policy will govern.

The Company will pay Covered Expenses due to Accident or Sickness only, as per the limits stated in the Schedule of Benefits. Coverage is limited to Covered Expenses incurred subject to Exclusions. All bodily Injuries sustained in any one Accident shall be considered one Disability. If a Disability is due to causes which are the same or related to the cause of a prior Disablement (including complications arising there from), the Disablement shall be considered a continuation of the prior Disablement and not a separate Disablement.

Treatment of an Injury or Illness must occur within 30 days of the Accident or onset of the Illness.

When a covered Injury or Illness is incurred by the Insured Person the Company will pay Reasonable and Customary medical expenses excess of the Deductible and Coinsurance as stated in the Schedule of Benefits. In no event shall the Company’s maximum liability exceed the maximum stated in the Schedule of Benefits as to Covered Expenses during any one period of individual coverage.

Deductible and Coinsurance amount consists of Covered Expenses which would otherwise be payable under this Policy. These expenses must be borne by the Insured Person.
