Armstrong eClassroom: Announcements

From within a Course, click on the dropdown arrow next to the word Announcement.

You can click on either Go to Announcements Tool or New Announcement.

This is the view you will see when you click on Go to Announcements Tool.

By clicking on New Announcement the same screen will be seen below.
This is the view you will see when you click on New Announcement Item.

Give the item a Headline or Title.

Place your announcement in the content box.

Attachments can also be placed on the Announcements Item.

Now you will be able to set up a date to begin and/or to end. Release conditions can also be set, please remember that students are not able to see the Release Conditions. It will be up to Instructors that use release conditions to notify their students.

Click on the Publish button once the Announcement is complete.
