Adding Live Text to the Armstrong eClassroom is done through an External Learning Tool. Use the dropdown to select External Learning Tools. Select Live Text. Once you select Live Text, it will appear in the Content area.
Click on the link and it will open with Armstrong eClassroom. Faculty or students have to log only once and it should remain logged in for them. Anyone will just click back on the link and it will open Live Text.