HAZING POLICY COMPLIANCE

I affirm the following:

1. I have read Armstrong State University's policy on Hazing and understand any violation could result in disciplinary action against individuals as well as organizations.

Hazing is defined as all rites and ceremonies of induction, initiation, continued membership, or orientation into University life or into the life of any University group, which tend to promote or inflict physical or mental suffering, or include the destruction of public or private property. Activities considered to be hazing shall include one or both of the following elements: (1) coercion, either overt or covert, and (2) production of physical or mental discomfort in either the participants or the spectators. Such activities suggested by a group or a member of a group to new or trial members will be considered covert coercion, even if the activity is said to be voluntary.

2. I agree to comply with these policies and report any hazing of which I am aware to the Office of Student Life at (912) 344-2504. Furthermore, I understand that failure to report any incident(s) may result in disciplinary action up to and including suspension from the University for the Chapter and/or individuals.
